

WEEKLY ROUNABOUT.

CLAUDE BUCKLEY. GEO. A. LEWIS.
BUCKLEY & LEWIS,
 Editors and Publishers.
 FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 6, 1879.

Personal.

J. B. Haly, jr., is visiting friends in Memphis.

Hon. W. C. Owens, of Georgetown, was in the city this week.

Mr. H. B. Cammack is in the city, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Milton McGrew is visiting her mother, in Jeffersonville, Ind.

Mr. Wm. Cromwell is with his parents, near this city, for a short time.

John T. Buckley, the tin-roofing man, is at work in Versailles this week.

Miss Jennie Hendrick returned from Louisville last Saturday evening.

U. S. Senator Jno. S. Williams passed up the railroad Wednesday morning.

Miss Jane Randolph, of Jessamine county, is visiting Mrs. G. M. Woods.

Col. Frank S. Owens, of Maysville, was in the city the first of the week on business.

Miss Lily Burbridge, of Covington, is visiting the family of Col. D. Howard Smith.

Mrs. R. R. Bacon returned Monday afternoon from a visit of several weeks to Louisville.

Miss Ellen McAuliffe returned last Saturday from a visit of two months to friends in Lexington.

Mr. Frank C. Hughes left the city Wednesday morning for a short visit to the Blue-Grass.

Mr. W. J. Lewis returned Tuesday from a visit of several weeks to his brother in Owensboro.

Mrs. B. B. Wilson, of the Hardinsville neighborhood, has been visiting relatives in the city this week.

Mr. James Heffner is slowly recovering from an attack of typhoid fever. He is now able to sit up.

Robt. W. Tilford has been over to Cincinnati this week. He is expected home this afternoon.

Little Jessie Mattern, after an absence of nearly two months in Louisville, returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. Joseph Olberman, formerly of this city but now of Cincinnati, has been visiting friends here this week.

Mrs. Green Clay Smith left yesterday morning for Cincinnati, where she will visit friends for a week or two.

Mr. Jesse McCoy, of Louisville, made a short visit this week to his daughter, Mrs. H. G. Mattern, South Side.

Miss Breck, one of Richmond's belles, has been visiting Misses Lizzie and Pauline Watson in this city this week.

Miss Mary Strahan, of Georgetown, has been in the city this week, the guest of Misses Eliza and Mamie Smith.

Miss Lucy Bush and Miss Mollie Guthrie, of Lawrenceburg, passed through this city en route for Louisville, Tuesday morning.

Ex-Governor Jas. B. McCreary has been in the city this week. He is looking well and appears to be in splendid health.

Hon. Bedford Leslie left for Barren county Tuesday morning to look after the farm he has recently purchased in that county.

Mr. C. F. Minott, High Secretary, Independent Order of Foresters, of Kentucky, was in the city Thursday and dropped in to see us.

Capt. Thos. Jones left Wednesday morning for a trip to Fayette, Clark and Montgomery counties on business connected with his office.

Mr. Ed. Hensely left for Louisville Tuesday morning, and from thence he went out on an adjusting tour for the Royal Insurance Company.

Miss Lizzie Smith went to Woodford Thursday morning to visit her friend, Mrs. Stevenson, nee Miss Jessie Parsons, formerly of Alabama.

Miss Jennie Standiford, who has been visiting Miss Willie Duvall, returned to her home in the Blue-Grass Capital Tuesday morning.

Maj. Alex. Grant was mistaken for Swigert Taylor last Monday because their mustaches are so much alike(?). "Well, I should smile."

The many friends of Miss Cecile Vaughn in this city will be pleased to learn that she is to spend the winter here, the guest of Miss Susie Rodman.

Mr. W. T. Reading and family, who have been visiting relatives in Shelby county for a couple of weeks, returned home Wednesday evening.

Little Miss Lizzie Crutcher, of Belle Point, who has been visiting her grandparents, Col. A. G. Hodges and wife, in Louisville, the past month, returned home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Waites, who had the misfortune to fall and break her arm last week, is improving slowly. It was a very painful accident, and several weeks must elapse before she will entirely recover.

Mr. Hugh R. Ayres, of the State Geological Survey, who has been working up the topography of the Green River region the past three months, returned home last Saturday, and will remain during the winter.

Miss Lulu Soaper, of Georgetown, came down with Miss Nanie Archer last week and remained till Monday, when both the young ladies returned to their books, much to the regret of several of Frankfort's handsome beaux.

Mr. A. C. Green and his accomplished young bride will leave this afternoon for Georgetown, where they will remain for some time. The many friends of Mr. Green, in this city, will regret to learn that he has given up his situation as chief clerk at the Capital Hotel.

Mr. Charles W. Bradley, of Lexington, spent a few days in this city the first of the week. One of the brightest young ladies in Frankfort informs us that he came down to attend to a little matter of business on the South Side, and we have every reason to believe she knows.

The friends of Mr. S. W. Swift, formerly of this city, may feel interested in his whereabouts, and for the benefit of such we will state that he has located at Crescent Beach, Niantic, Connecticut, near Long Island Sound. He has built him a house there, and is doing well.

Mr. Jas. M. Todd returned Tuesday evening from a visit to Denver, Colorado. He reports Capt. At. Renick in good health, and says At. still has an interest in three claims at Leadville, which are being worked, and although they have not struck paying dirt, the prospects are good for a rich strike.

MARRIED.

At Peak's Mill, on Tuesday, Dec. 24, by Elder George Darsie, Mr. A. T. DAUGHERTY and Mrs. Sallie DAUGHERTY, both of this county.

At the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. D. C. Barrett, in South Frankfort, on Wednesday, December, 3d, by Rev. J. M. Pringle, of Henderson, Mr. GASTON M. ALVIS, of Henderson, and Miss MAY N. GIBBONS, of this city.
